Emanuel Sanfilippo, III, Esq. is a new addition to the team at Nehmad Davis & Goldstein. Emanuel, or as he is better known, “Manny,” focuses his practice in the areas of land use, real estate, commercial transactions, and local government.

During the pursuit of his law degree, Manny interned for the Hon. Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., P.J.Cr., and clerked for a regional South Jersey law firm. While a clerk, Manny focused upon issues involving corporate and construction litigation.

Prior to joining Nehmad Davis & Goldstein, Manny clerked for the Hon. Michael J. Blee, A.J.S.C. where he worked predominantly with matters involving land use, probate, and underage gambling. Manny also worked with the Hon. M. Susan Sheppard, P.J.Ch. on a variety of chancery matters, the Hon. Pamela D’Arcy, J.S.C. on post-conviction relief motions, and with the Hon. Joseph E. Kane, J.S.C., ret’d, on recall, on small claims and landlord tenant disputes.

Manny grew up in Hammonton, New Jersey where he takes great pride in the heritage, history and culture of the town.
